SCHOOL YEAR EXTENDED ONE DAY DUE TO WEATHER; SENIORS HAVE MORE CLASS TIME THIS YEAR

Prince George's County Public Schools (PGCPS) has made two adjustments to the 2007-2008 school calendar to increase opportunities for teaching and learning. One change was made due to weather, while the other was designed to increase educational opportunities for seniors.

The last day for students is now Monday, June 9, and the last day for teachers is Tuesday, June 10. PGCPS had to make up for class time lost on February 22 when schools were closed due to inclement weather.

Due to the variety of schedules for 10-month employees, these staff members should confirm their last day with their immediate supervisors. If schools are closed again due to unexpected inclement weather or other emergencies, additional make-up days may be required.

The last day for seniors was moved to May 22 this year, providing four more days for students to take advantage of educational and college planning opportunities.
